

Syllabus for MPhil/ PhD in German Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 50 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including simple and multiple choice, match-the-following, assertion-reasoning, etc.

Questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language Use: questions will include comprehension, applied grammar (sequencing, antonyms, idiomatic usage of language, proverbs etc.) of approximately B2-C1 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. Literary and cultural movements of German Speaking Europe.
3. Major historical developments of German Speaking Europe.
4. Important authors, composers, scientists etc. of German Speaking Europe.

Syllabus for M.A in German Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 100 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including simple and multiple choice, match-the-following, assertion-reasoning, etc.

Questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language Use: questions will include comprehension, applied grammar (sequencing, antonyms, idiomatic usage of language etc.) of approximately B1-B2 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. General awareness related to the history, geography, political events, political figures, sports, cinema, music and other art forms, etc. of German Speaking Europe.
3. Important authors, composers, scientists etc. of German Speaking Europe.
4. Major literary epochs and representative literary works of German Speaking Europe.