

Syllabus for MPhil/ PhD in Italian Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 50 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including simple and multiple choice, match-the-following, assertion-reasoning, etc.

Questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language Use: questions will include comprehension, grammatical categories including vocabulary of approximately B2-C1 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. Key concepts of literary theory, translation theory and teaching methodologies
3. Literary and cultural movements of Italy
4. Historical developments in Italy
5. Important authors and texts of Italian Literature (XX and XXI century)

Syllabus for M.A in Italian Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 100 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including simple and multiple choice, match-the-following, assertion-reasoning, etc.

Questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language Use: questions will include basic comprehension, grammatical categories including vocabulary of approximately B1-B2 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. General awareness related to the history, geography, political events, political figures, sports, cinema, music and other art forms, etc. of Italy
3. Important authors and works and key literary epochs

NOTE: In any case, most importance is given not to factual knowledge but to comprehension and ability to reason and understand.