

Syllabus for MPhil/ PhD in Hispanic Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 50 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including simple and multiple choice, match-the-following, assertion-reasoning, etc.

Questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language Use: questions will include comprehension, grammatical categories including vocabulary (frases hechas, refranes, modismos, etc.) of approximately B2-C1 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. Key concepts of literary theory, translation theory and teaching methodologies
3. Literary and cultural movements of the Hispanic World
4. Historical developments of the Hispanic World
5. Important authors and texts of Hispanic Literature (XX and XXI century)

Syllabus for M.A in Hispanic Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 100 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including simple and multiple choice, match-the-following, assertion-reasoning, etc.

Questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language Use: questions will include basic comprehension, grammatical categories including vocabulary (frases hechas, refranes, modismos, etc.) of approximately B1-B2 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. General awareness related to the history, geography, political events, political figures, sports, cinema, music and other art forms, etc. of the Hispanic world.
3. Important authors and works and key literary epochs