

Syllabus for Entrance Test: MPhil/ PhD in French and Francophone Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 50 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including Simple and Multiple Choice, Match-the-Following, Assertion-Reasoning, etc.

The questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language use including questions on comprehension, grammatical categories, vocabulary, etc. The level required is approximately B2-C1 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. Key concepts of literary theory, translation theory and teaching methodologies.
3. Literary and cultural movements in the French and Francophone World.
4. Historical developments in the French and Francophone World.
5. Important authors and texts of French and Francophone Literature (19th-21st centuries)

Syllabus for Entrance Test: M.A in French and Francophone Studies

The Entrance Test consists of 100 Multiple Choice Questions of different types including Simple and Multiple Choice, Match-the-Following, Assertion-Reasoning, etc.

The questions will cover the following areas:

1. Language use questions including basic comprehension, grammatical categories and vocabulary. The level required is approximately B1-B2 levels of the Common European Framework.
2. General awareness questions on the French and Francophone world including areas like history, geography, political events and personalities, current affairs, sports, cinema, music and other art forms, etc.
3. Important authors and their works.
4. Key literary trends and movements.
5. Translation of simple sentences from French-English and English-French.